

MANUAL
For

SEYALEMOYA COMMUNICATIONS (Pty) Ltd
t/a OFM
(Reg. Nr 1996/008441/07)

Prepared in terms of the requirements of the
PROMOTION OF ACCESS OF INFORMATION ACT

No 2 of 2000

(hereinafter referred to as "the Act")

The manual may be amended from time to time and as soon as any amendments have been finalised, the updated version of the manual will be made public.

1. Introduction

The Act gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state or any information that is held by another person, which is required for the exercise, or protection of any rights. The Act sets out the requisite procedures associated with any such requests for information.

In terms of the Act, where a request for information is made to a body, there is an obligation to provide the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may not be released. In that context, Section 9 of the Act recognises that access to information can be limited. The limitation relates to circumstances where its release would pose a threat to the protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and exercising of efficient governance.

4.3. The request procedure

Form of request:

The requester must use the prescribed Form C(a copy of which is attached) to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the head of the private body. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic e-mail address of the body concerned [s 53(1)].

The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed [s 53(2)(a), (b) and (c)].

The requester must identify the right is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right [s 53(2)(d)].

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body [s 53(2)(f)].

In terms of section 63 of the Act, the information officer of Seyalemoya Communications (Pty) Ltd must refuse a request for access to a record of the company if the record contain trade secrets, financial, operational, programming, news and technical information of which the disclosure could harm the interests of Seyalemoya Communications (Pty) Ltd.

In accordance with the above mandatory refusal grounds, the Information Officer will make a decision whether to accede to a request for access to information.

Any search, reproduction and document preparation necessitated by requests for information will be undertaken in accordance with the prescribed fees.

5. The Access fee and or Deposit

Please note that an initial, non-refundable request fee of R57.00(inclusive of vat) is payable on submission. This fee is not applicable to personal requests, i.e. individual seeking access to records pertaining to those individual themselves.

The applicant will be informed of the access fee(if any) which is payable for having access to the records. In addition, a deposit may be requested which is fully refundable in the event that the application is ultimately refused.

6. Other information as may be prescribed [s 51(1)(f)].

The Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development has not made any regulations in this regard.
